GRASS IS GREEN ON RESEARCH PLOTS

Your eyes aren't playing tricks if you see richly green grass as you drive by the experimental lawn plots at the Eastern Research Station at Warsaw. The grass really is green, says A. G. Smith, Jr., associate horticulturist at VPI.

However, there is a trick involved, Smith says. The plots have been "painted" to keep them green through the winter .The dye was sprayed on after the grass stopped growing. This method, Smith says, is better than that of tearing up the sod in the fall to sow ryegrass for the winter. The rye grass, which has only a temporary value, damages the permanent sod.

H .M .Camper, Jr., superintendent of the Warsaw Station, invites interested people to inspect the extensive plantings of lawn grasses at the station, preferably by appointment.

Seven Apply To Take Postmaster Exams

Jaycees Name Fred Jones Outstanding Young Farmer

..... Fred Jones

Fred Jones was selected by the Appomattox County Junior Chamber of Commerce as the Outstanding Young Farmer of 1958 in the Appomattox County area. Fred is 29 years old, married and has two children. He is a graduate of the Appomattox High School and lives on his farm on Route One.

Jones' selection as the Outstanding Young Farmer of 1958 was made from a list of nominees submitted by interested persons in the area. This is the second year that the Appomattox Jaycees have sponsored the contest in cooperation with the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce and the American Petroleum Institute committee on Agriculture.

Clark Lewis, of Oakville, was the area winner of the Outstanding Young Farmer award for the year of 1957.

The area winners in the state compete for state honors and the winner in this competition will compete for national honors at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, April 6-8.

The selection of winners in the Outstanding Young Farmer contest is based on three things as follows: degree of progress in agricultural career, 35 points; extent of good soil and natural resources conservation practices, 30 points, and contribution to community, state and nation ,35 points.

Fred Jones rates high in all these categories. In 1950 he began by borrowing $3,000.00 to purchase 108 acres. Then in 1955 in partnership, Fred increased his acreage, and today he farms a total of 284 acres. When Fred started 8 years ago, he had 600 layers producing 416 cases of eggs and today he has 2500 layers and produces 1560 cases of eggs. Also on his farm he now has 76 swine and a Registered Berkshire Boar. As for crops, and land under cultivation, Fred has increased his acreage from 27 to 62 acres producing corn, tobacco, wheat, barley, seed clover, hay ,and seed lespedeza. In 1953 Fred suffered a great loss, which amounted to $1,500.00 in chickens and two cows with blackleg, valued at $200. As his progress and determination shows, this setback did not stop him.

Fred has kept abreast of the times and has up-to-date machinery and modern -day crop practices, which give him better yields. He has self-feeders for the swine with balanced ration in feeding. He allows three acres for grazing of sows and has a registered Berkshire Boar.

Jones has begun construction of a layer house 40 ft. x 200 ft., with two sides open and center ventilation. He also has an automatic water feeder for his chickens.

A member of Central Baptist Church, Fred's community activities consist also of being treasurer of the Young Farmer's Association and serving on the Board of Directors of Southern States Cooperative.

We of Appomattox can be proud of Fred Jones. He is a great asset to our community.

Local Studeuts Will Observe F.F.A. Week

The F. F. A. boys of Appomattox High School are planning now toward observing National F. F. A. Week starting Saturday. Local members are working on several articles, to appear in The Times-Virginian next week, as a salute to F. F. A. work. They also plan to have an exhibit in one of the local stores, and to display F. F. A. Week posters at various places.

Jack Henry, reporter for the Robert E. Lee Chapter, is heading up the work of preparing articles and pictures for the newspaper salute to the F. F. A. Edward Williams is chairman of the committee working up the exhibits. The local F. F. A. Chapter has 94 members, including some associate members.

Officers for the chapter this year are: Jack Tibbs, president; Dennis Torrence, vice-president; Myron Richardson, secretary; Robert Mann, treasurer; Jack Henry, reporter, and Henry Covington, sentinel. Bobby Garrett is the F. F. . chaplain.

Our nation growing in leaps and bounds in population has a constantly shrinking acreage available for farming. New farmers to replace those who die, retire ,or otherwise leave the farm are needed each year. These new farmers must be well-trained to cope with modern - day farming. They must be trained as a scientist and a businessman; as a mechanic and a laborer in crops, livestock, disease and pest control, harvesting and marketing, and in good citizenship. Vocational agriculture and the F. F. A. is the best program yet developed to train the future farmers in these qualities. F. F. A. Week salutes these future farmers and their work.

Trinity Methodist Church to Consecrate New Building Sunday

Sunday, Feb. 22, will be a grand day for the members and friends of Trinity Methodist Church, this county. It will be the occasion of the Consecration and first use of the new church building, recently completed at a cost of approximately $42,000.

The Rev. Aaron D. Smith, pastor of the Appomattox Circuit, of which Trinity is a part, has announced a full day's program for this Sunday. Dr. John F. Owens, Superintendent of the Lynchburg District, Virginia Conference, will be the guest speaker at the 11:00 A .M. Worship.

Open House will be observed from 3:00 to 5:00 P. M. The public is invited to attend and inspect the new building and its equipment.

Refreshments will be served during the Open House hours.

This event will climax a building program envisioned a few years ago. Construction began May 1, 1958, with J. E. Jamerson & Sons as the contractors. Total cost of the building is estimated at $42,000. The commodious structure embraces the sanctuary and educational plant, all under one roof. There are approximately 7,000 square feet of floor space. The sanctuary has a seating capacity of 200. Fifteen memorial windows of rare beauty were donated by members and friends of the church. Also most of the pews were donated as memorials, and all of the pulpit furniture. A new Baldwin electric organ was donated by one family of the church.

Membership of the church is approximately 215. The church was established about 100 years ago. The original structure has been sold to Mr. Len Martin of the Trinity community, and will be dismantled and removed. The church is located about six miles west of Oakville.

It is understood that the greater portion of the cost of the building has already been raised, and part of the balance is covered by pledges of contributions. However, the pastor, the Rev. Aaron D .Smith, or treasurer, K. E. Coleman, will accept additional contributions.

The Rev. Smith is now in his fourth year as pastor and has done an outstanding job in his leadership of this activity.

Hearing March 12th on New Road Location

A public hearing on the location of Interstate Route 64 between Richmond and Clifton Forge will be held by the State Highway Commission on March 12 at the Mcsque in Richmond.

The hearing will begin at 10 A. M. and probably will consume most of the day.

Highway Commissioner S. D. May said proponents of the southern corridor along Routes 360, 460, and 220 will present their case first. They will be followed by those favoring the location along U. S. Route 250. Each side, May said, will be allotted two hours.

Facts presented at the hearing will be reviewed by the Highway Commission before a decision is made as to whether the location already approved along Route 250 will be followed or the line for the major east-west Interstate highway will be shifted to the southern corridor by way of Lynchburg and Roanoke.

A change in the location of the route would have to be approved by the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads and the Department of Defense.

A report on a comparative study of the two routes was made public by the Highway Department on January 28.

Polls Set For Tobacco Vote

The Appomattox ASC Office has been designated by the ASC County Committee as the voting place for the referenda on three types of tobacco, sun-cured, burley and Maryland. The polls will be open from 8:0 0A .M. to 6:00 P. M. Tuesday, February 24.

Committee chairman W .D. Hix, III, points out that notices of farm acreage allotments have been mailed out to all sun-cured, burley and Maryland tobacco growers so that they may know what their 1959 allotments are in advance of the referenda.

If at least two-thirds of the growers voting in the referenda approve, quotas and allotments will be in effect on the 1959 ,1960 and 1961 crops. Penalties for producing excess tobacco will also be in effect, and price support will be available to growers who comply with their allotments.

If marketing quotas are not approved, then, for marketing purposes during the 1959-60 marketing year, there will be no quotas or penalties, no acreage allotments, and no price support on the 1959 crop of sun-cured ,burley or Maryland tobaccos. In that event, another referendum would be held next year on quotas for the following three crops.

It is understood that seven persons will take a newly called examination under the Civil Service Commission for the position of Postmaster at Appomattox. It is expected that the examination will be held in March.

Closing date for applicants to take the examination was Feb. 10. It is understood that the following applied: Richard L. Wingfield, Henry Wellington Conner, Clifford E. Harvey, Henry T. Chernault, Paul O. Doss, Robert E. Goin, and John T. Almond, Jr.

Since the retirement of E. LeRoy Smith as Appomattox Postmaster, on January 1, 1957, Richard L. Wingfield has been serving as Acting Postmaster. An examination for permanent appointment was held, but due to withdrawals and disqualifications, less than the required number of eligibles remained. Hence a new examination was called and time given for new applicants to express intent to take the examination. The applicants will be notified as to the date of the examination, presumably in March. It will be held in Lynchburg, under the supervision of the area secretary for the Civil Service.

Following the examination, each person taking same will be notified of his grade. Those having taken the examination within the past years have an option of taking either the score on the first or the second examination. From the three highest eligibles a recommendation will be made for appointment.
